Report

The Department of Economics organised a one day workshop on the topic "Entrepreneurship in the Brick Industry" in the college premises. The resource person of the workshop was Miss Sumpi Devi who is an ex student of the department. HoD Parag Jyoti Mahanta introduced and welcomed the resource person which was also a moment of pride for him. The resource person then gave her speech on the topic. Miss Devi shared her story of how she ended up being in the brick business industry. She said how the death of her father, who was the proprietor of BNB Brick Industry, made her to run the business. Later she lost her mother also. Miss Devi explained how a brick industry works, how much dedication, perseverance and hard work is necessary to run any business. She also told about the challenges she faced while running the business specially at a young age. She told the students about the endless possibilities and scope in different areas of startups and businesses. After her speech Dr. Chandan Sharma gave the vote of thanks.

Outcome: the students were enthusiastically participating in the workshop and interacted with the resource person. The outcome was found to be positive.
