Report

A one day workshop on the topic "IPR in Finance" is organised by the Department of Economics in the college premises. The resource person for the day is Dr. Pranjeet Das who is Assistant Professor of Finance in the Department of Commerce, Morigaon College. After the brief introduction of the resource person by Dr. Chandan Sharma, the resource person began his speech. He first explained the meaning of IPR and gave some basic ideas about finance. He emphasised upon the popularity of IP financing also known as the use of IP assets to gain access to credit. Specially in today's era where so many startups have come forward, IP financing has become important for them. After a brief interaction session the workshop ended with a vote of thanks by Mrinmoyee Baishya, faculty member of the department.
