A One-day Workshop on ' Partition Literature and Historiographical Research ' organised by Department of English, Morigaon College

Venue: AKG HALL

Date: 24 -02-2020

Number of Participants: 112

Target Group: U.G. Students

The participating students were from Morigaon College and Charaibahi College

Concept Note:

Historiography of partition of India has been a subject of wide range of interpretations, approaches and positions. Expressions of all those historiographical interpretations have their tilts according to the circumstances. That range could be classified under many thematic shifts and perspectives. Historiography of Partition comprehends the partition between India and Pakistan in plausible manner by ascertaining the particularities of that transformation which still haunts the situation in both the neighboring countries. This workshop is an effort to elaborate and evaluate the relevant historiography of the scattered and marginal aspects of partition.

Objectives of the workshop:

- * To encourage the students critically think and interpret literature related to partition of India
- * To see the literature produced during partition from fresh perspectives

Workshop Coordinators:

- * Dr. Diganta Kr. Nath, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English
- * Mr. Ajijur Rahman, Assistant Professor, Department of English

Assistant Coordinator:

- * Ms. Fateha Sultana, Assistant Professor, Department of English

Workshop Advisors:

- * Mrs. Ami Devi, Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Botany
- * Dr. Hemanta Nath, Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Geography

Resource Person: Mr. Pranjal Hazarika, Assistant Professor, Charaibahi College

Report:

On 24/02/2020 the One-day Workshop was held at Hall No. 10 of the college which was attended by 112 students from several colleges around Morigaon College. The workshop started at 10:00 a.m. with the inauguration of the program by Mrs. Ami Devi, Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Botany. Mr. Ajijur Rahman, Assistant Professor, Department of English delivered both the welcome speech and keynote address of the workshop to the participants and the audience. The Resource person of the Workshop was Mr. Pranjal Hazarika, Assistant Professor, Charaibahi Colege who delivered his highly pertinent lecture on the theme of the Workshop 'Partition Literature and Historiographical Research'. He elaborated the ideas and interpretations related to the partition period in connection with historiographical levels and lines of research.

The Workshop ended with the concluding remarks and vote of thanks from Dr. Saradashree Choudhary, Assistant Professor, Department of English.

Outcome:

- The students were able to delve into the states of despair and desperation, displacement and desolation during partition.
- They came to learn about the newer ways to analyze and look into the partition situations of conflict and dilemma
