Report
On
One-day Workshop on 'Literature and Mythology: Emerging Research' organised by Department of English, Morigaon College

Venue: Hall No. 10

Date: 6-11-2018

Number of Participants: 105

Target Group: U.G. Students

The names of the colleges from where students participated: Morigaon College, GKB College and Charaibahi College

Concept Note:

Mythology, with its rich tapestry of gods, heroes and ancient tales has been a wellspring of expression for literature throughout the ages. These timeless narrators stepped in symbolism and archetypal figures, continue to captivate readers and shape the literary landscapes of the present day. Hence studying mythology gives us context into our world of literature and research of such myths will help us access into the new doors of literary knowledge and meaning. This workshop tries to inject into the young learners the significance of new arenas of interconnection between mythology and literature.

Objectives of the workshop:

- * To bring out the importance of mythology in relation to English literature
- * To develop knowledge on tales, symbols and references related to mythology

Workshop Coordinators:

- * Dr. Diganta Kr. Nath, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English
- * Dr. Saradashree Choudhury, Assistant Professor, Department of English

Workshop Advisors:

- * Dr. Hahiram Lahkar, Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Geography
- * Dr. Nilomoni Phukan, Associate Professor & HoD, Department of Philosophy

Resource Person:

Dr. Moidul Islam, Associate Professor, Department of English, Moirabari College

Report: The One-day Workshop was held on 6/11/2018 at Hall no. 10 which was attended by 105 nos. of students.. The program was inaugurated at 11:00 a.m. by Dr. Nilomoni Phukan, Associate Professor & HOD, Department of Philosophy, in the presence of Resource Person Dr. Moidul Islam, Associate Professor, Moirabari College, all the faculties of the department of English of Morigaon College and the students from several colleges. Dr. Diganta Kumar Nath, Associate Professor and HoD of English delivered the welcome speech and introductory note of the workshop to the audience. The Resource person of the Workshop Dr. Moidul Islam delivered his valuable lecture on the subject 'Relevance of Greek Mythological Aspects to Present-day Literature' that brought about deep connectivity between popularly-recognized Greek mythology and contemporary literature.

The Workshop ended with the concluding remarks and vote of thanks from Mr. Ajijur Rahman, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Morigaon College.

Outcome:

- The students were able to understand the inherent values and significance of mythological resources, especially of the Greeks.
- The lecture session was highly enjoyable and knowledgeable as the students were able to see mythology from entirely novel and different perspectives.

Concept Note:

Literary and cultural theories have increasingly claimed cultural centrality for narrative. The theory of narrative has been an active branch of literary theory, and literary study relies on theories of narrative structure: on notions of plot, of different kinds of narrators, of narrative techniques. The poetics of narrative, as we might call it, both attempts to understand the components of narrative and analyses how a particular narrative achieves its effects. Keeping such a notion in mind the Workshop is organized for the greater benefit of the student community.

Objectives of the workshop:

- * To acquaint the students with effective narratology
- * To make the students aware of the benefit of narrative writing in its literary application
- * To create interest and understanding in the students about literary narratives.

Workshop Coordinators:

- * Dr. Diganta Kr. Nath, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English
- * Mr. Ajijur Rahman, Assistant Professor, Department of English

Assistant Coordinator:

- * Mr. Ajit Konwar

Workshop Advisors:

- * Dr. Lila Kanta Barthakuar, Principal, Morigaon College
- * Dr. Arunima Sarma, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry
