Topic: Exploring Data Collection and Analysis Techniques (RM)

Resource person: Nilakhi Bhuyan

Date: 06/11/2020

A workshop on the topic "Exploring Data Collection and Analysis Techniques" was organized by the Department of Zoology, Morigaon College on 06/11/2020. Nilakhi Bhuyan, Subject teacher, Morigaon HS & MP School was present as the resource person. An exploration of data collection and analysis techniques is crucial for both graduating students and those pursuing a Master's in Science (M.Sc.). This report encapsulates the essence of understanding methodologies in data handling, offering a foundational perspective for students in their academic and research pursuits. The exploration encompasses various techniques, from traditional survey methods to advanced data analytics tools. It emphasizes the importance of selecting appropriate methods based on research objectives, highlighting the significance of ethical considerations and data integrity. The report encourages students to engage with diverse sources, leverage technology for efficient data management, and develop a robust analytical skill set. By navigating this multifaceted landscape, students not only enhance their research capabilities but also contribute to the advancement of their respective fields. Ultimately, proficiency in data collection and analysis is foundational for informed decision-making and scholarly contributions, forming an integral part of academic and professional development for graduating and M.Sc. students alike.
