Date:10/02/2019

A workshop on the topic "Beyond Bird watching: Building an Entrepreneurial Path as a Profitable Passion" was organized by the Department of Zoology, Morigaon College on 10.02.2019. Dils Joree, Research Scholar, Gauhati University was present as the resource person. The exploration of nature and wildlife extends beyond traditional birdwatching, presenting a unique avenue for building an entrepreneurial path fueled by passion. This report delves into the fusion of environmental enthusiasm with entrepreneurial endeavors, showcasing how individuals can transform their love for nature into profitable ventures. From ecotourism initiatives and wildlife photography to environmental consultancy services, opportunities abound for those seeking to merge their scientific expertise with business acumen. The report encourages students to consider innovative ways of contributing to conservation efforts while generating sustainable income. By highlighting successful examples and entrepreneurial strategies, it aims to inspire the next generation of professionals to embark on a rewarding journey where passion for nature converges with economic viability, creating a harmonious balance between ecological advocacy and entrepreneurial spirit.
